

Gratefulness Calendar

NOVEMBER 2017

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
			1 Read The Bubble Who Would Not POP! by Shelly Roark (ages 4-9) 	2 Make a Thankful Jar full of things you're thankful for as a family	3 Mail cards to extended family members, like an elderly relative	4 Plant a Tree
5 Memorize Psalm 100:4 Daylight Savings Ends	6 Put positive sticky notes on everyone's mirror at home	7 Make a Thank You note for your librarians	8 Send a care package to a sick family member or friend	9 Read Bear Says Thanks by Karma Wilson (4-8)	10 Make a harvest trail mix in jar/bag for teacher 	11 Take treats or cards to the fire or police station Veterans Day
12 Memorize I Chronicles 16:34	13 Donate Food to a local food pantry	14 Read What Is Thanksgiving? by Michelle Medlock Adams (ages 2-5)	15 Go on a Gratitude Scavenger Hunt Together	16 Give treats with a Thank You note to your mail carrier	17 Donate a Turkey to a food drive	18 Take supplies to an animal shelter
19 Memorize I Thessalonians 5:18	20  Write a Thank You letter to Jesus	21 Make a small button pumpkin collage place card for each table setting	22 Read The Night Before Thanksgiving by Natasha Wing (ages 4-8)	23 Happy Thanksgiving Have a wonderful Day Giving Thanks!	24 Say Please and Thank You to everyone all day	25 Paint Gratitude Rocks and place them around town
26 Memorize Psalm 34:8	27 Compliment 5 people today	28 Donate gently used clothes, like a winter coat, to a domestic shelter 	29 Decorate your door with paper snowflakes.	30 Donate Toys to your favorite Charity	Have a grateful, thankful November!

For more inspiration and ideas, please visit our blog at www.littlelambbooks.com